

Common Native Plant Species

Directions: Look at the examples of native plant species commonly found in residential yards or parks provided below. Try to find these species during your field explorations! Be sure to keep track of the species you find on the Biodiversity in Grasslands Worksheet. These photos were provided by this week's expert, Evelyn Merz from the University of Houston Coastal Center.

Trees

Live Oak

Hackberry

Cedar Elm

American Elm

Southern Magnolia

Vines

Poison Ivy

WARNING:
Touching poison ivy could result in rashes
and allergic reactions.
DO NOT TOUCH THIS PLANT.

Trumpet Vine

Peppervine

Grasses and Sedge

Inland Seoats

Cherokee Sedge

Shrubs

Yaupon

Elderberry

Wax Myrtle

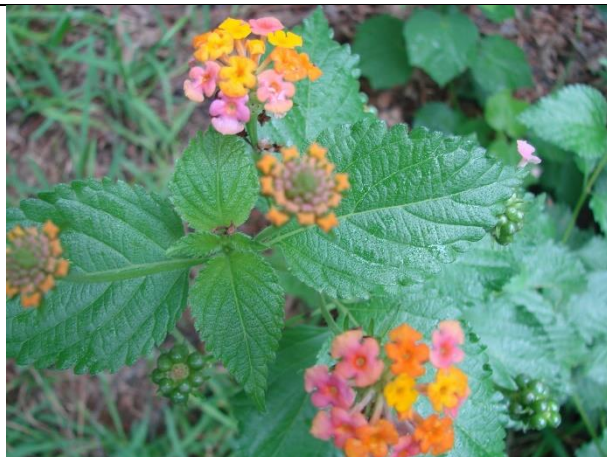

Rattlebush

Forbs

Lantana

Lyre-leaf sage

Maximillian sunflower

Spiderwort

Turk's cap

Indian blanket

Mexican hat

Goldenrod

Texas Frogfruit

Black-eyed Susan

